

STORE BARRICADE

Welcome to the World of C.O. Bigelow

Founded in 1838, C.O. Bigelow is an American apothecary legend. The single location nestled in the heart of Greenwich Village has long been a destination for discerning customers, celebrities and those in the know.

Experience C.O. Bigelow in the 21st Century—a completely new incarnation of the apothecary combining the best of tradition with the latest modern technology. Our belief in the highest quality products has us traveling the globe—searching far and wide for the most sought after, most luxurious, most distinct items in their categories. The result is an incomparable assortment of bodycare, makeup, skincare, fragrance, and haircare—an International beauty collection both chic and unique.

Discover all things pampering and practical, beautiful and experiential, with the intriguing stories behind each product and custom tailored advice to satisfy your every need.

We invite you into the world of C.O. Bigelow. It's been a long time coming.